

TRACEY KRONICK

Tracey has always admired artists that incorporate Jewish culture and themes with their work. Tracey enjoys going to shul and one of the most touching parts of the service for her is when the Torah is replaced in the Ark and the Etz Hayim is sung. This card design was inspired by that portion of the service and the emotions that it stirred within her.

